It's in the Air

With which a man carries himself. Clothes tell. Your neighbor, or friend and fellow, will judge you to a great extent by the clothes you wear. Clothes don't make the man-no, but they distinguish the gentleman.

You can't afford to be careless about your personal appearance. A good suit of clothes will go a long ways toward creating a good impression. And they say first impressions are lasting.

Wear an "H. & H." Suit. There'll be no suspicious glances shot at you. The quality, fit and workmanship is always the best. You'll be admired for your good judgment.
